Insurance:

It is essential to let me know about all possible insurance plans you have that might cover services. Please note it is your responsibility for verifying and understanding the limits of your coverage. You are ultimately responsible for full payment of your account. If you have a copay, you are responsible for and shall pay your copay at the time services are provided. In addition, please be aware that I am required to provide a diagnosis on invoices and claims, and coverage may be limited to certain mental conditions. Even if you have coverage for unlimited sessions, health plans may review treatment, limit coverage, and/or request treatment notes. Although efforts can be made in obtaining insurance reimbursement, I am unable to guarantee whether your health plan will provide payment for the services provided. You are responsible for notifying ECC immediately of any changes to your insurance. If you fail to notify ECC, you may be billed for services that are not covered. As mentioned previously, if I am a provider with your plan, I will submit claims for you, and you are financially responsible for any copayment, coinsurance, or any portion not covered by your plan. There may be a deductible (an amount you will need to pay out of pocket) before your insurance plan begins covering sessions. If I am not a provider with your plan, you will pay the full session fee at the time of service. I can provide an invoice if you wish to seek reimbursement from your plan. Please note many insurance plans do not cover sessions with a provider who is not in their network.
